To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

Ecclesiastes 3:1

Our Moments and Our Days

Quality watches are an investment, and only a few can afford high-end timepieces. Take the Louis Moinet Meteoris watch collection, for example. Only four were made, and one contains a real piece of meteorite. This beautiful watch collection sold for nearly five million dollars.

The child of God has a much better timepiece—the perfect timing of God for all the arrangements, circumstances, opportunities, and trials of life. The Swedish hymnist Carolina Sandell wrote of this in her great hymn, “Day by Day.” She said, “Day by day and with each passing moment, strength I find to meet my trials here; / Trusting in my Father’s wise bestowment, I’ve no cause for worry or for fear.” She went on to remind us: “Ev’ry day the Lord himself is near me, with a special mercy for each hour.”

God is more patient than we are because He sees us from the perspective of eternity. That's why Moses wasn't called to his work until age eighty. That's why Jesus began His ministry at age thirty. That's why Abraham's prayer for a child wasn't answered until it seemed too late, and that's why our Lord showed up at the home of Lazarus after the man had died.

God doesn't work on our timetable. In Genesis, Joseph was enslaved at age seventeen and spent about thirteen years in slavery and prison. Yet during that time, God was preparing him to become one of the most powerful men in the world. If you're waiting for an answer from God, be patient and remember that God has perfect timing. Each hour—moment by moment—our times are in His hands! We have hope because we know that God shows up at exactly the right moment. An anonymous little poem puts it like this:

God has perfect timing; never early, never late.
It takes a little patience and it takes a lot of faith.
But it's truly, worth the wait!

Monthly Fellowship Supper – Wednesday, Aug. 12th @ 5:30pm
Everyone is invited!

Our August meeting will be on Sunday, August 16th @ 5:00 pm, before the Sunday Evening Worship service. This month we are studying Ruth in our series on the women in the lineage of Christ. Also, we will soon begin planning for our October focus for missions. All ladies are invited to attend.

The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears, and delivers them out of all their troubles.
Psalm 34:17

If we view God as the source of our trouble, we will likely be resentful and self-pitying. But if we view Him as the source of our tranquility, we will draw near to Him knowing that He will draw near to us. As James wrote, “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you” (James 4:8). And as Paul wrote, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7).

True peace comes not from the absence of trouble but from the presence of God.
Alexander MacLaren
