

Psalm 23

“The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness, For His name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me, All the days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.”

Psalm 23 doesn’t say, “The Lord is a shepherd,” or “The Lord is the shepherd.” It says, “The Lord is my shepherd.” And if He is my Shepherd, I will not lack:

- I shall not lack peace and provisions, for He gives me green pastures and still waters.
- I shall not lack hope and encouragement, for He restores my soul.
- I shall not lack guidance, for He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name’s sake.
- I shall not lack deliverance in tough times, for He’s with me even in the valley of shadows.
- I shall not lack protection, for His rod and staff comfort me, and He prepares a table for me in the presence of my enemies.
- I shall not lack help and healing in all the events of life, for He anoints my head with oil.
- I shall not lack endless blessing, for my cup overflows, and goodness and mercy will follow me all my days.
- I shall not lack eternal life and heaven, for I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
